

Traditional Croatian Geodetic Days held

12.05.2025 14:21

At the invitation of the President of the Croatian Geodetic Society, Mr. Rinaldo Paar, Director Željko

Obradović participated in the traditional Croatian Geodetic Days held in Seget Donji, from May 9 to 11. These prestigious conference gathered over 500 participants from across the Republic of Croatia, along with significant number of guests.

The event was officially opened by the Minister of Spatial Planning, Construction, and State Property of the Republic of Croatia, Branko Bačić. During the three-day program, participants had the opportunity to participate in presentations and workshops related to geodetic and cadastral affairs.

These gatherings serve as an important platform for the development of the profession, exchanging experiences, and strengthening collaboration in the fields of geodesy and cadastre.
